

This is a visual story of visiting Jermyn Street Theatre.

Jermyn Street Theatre is located at:
16b Jermyn Street
London
SW1Y 6NY

The entrance is a 3 minute walk from Piccadilly Circus Tube Station and a 10 minute walk from Green Park Tube station.

This is your view if coming from Piccadilly Circus and walking down Jermyn Street. The entrance will be on your right.

This is your view if coming from Green Park and walking down Jermyn Street. The entrance will be on your left.

This is the only entrance to the theatre. The door to Jermyn Street Theatre is next to Papa L's Kitchen.

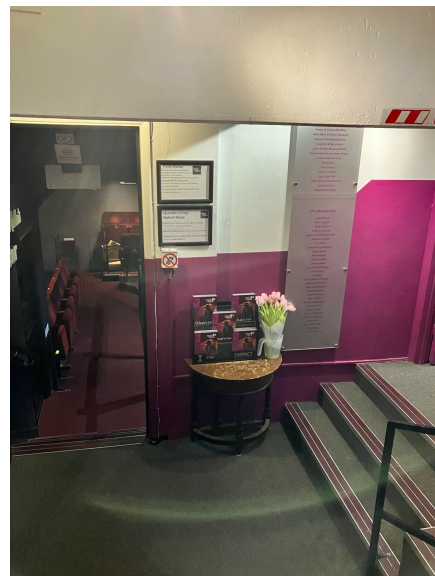

This is your view as you step through the doorway. There is 1 small step up to enter the door.

Once through the door, there are 18 steps (14 straight ahead then 4 as you turn right).

Once you have reached the bottom of the stairs, you will find the Box Office and Front of House area.

This is the Box Office/Front of House area. It is small and there are some parts that have a low ceiling. The steps on the right lead up to a staff office.

In this area, Box Office staff will greet you. They will give you your ticket(s).

This is your view as you enter the door to the theatre. There are 6 steps to go down as you enter the theatre.

This will be your view to your right as you enter the theatre. The set will change production to production.

This is your view as you enter. This is the door to our bar. A staff member will be standing here and you can purchase drinks and programmes from them.

This is your view as you move past the bar, there are two rows on the side of the theatre, they are rows F and G.

This is your view if you stand in the corner of the theatre by the fire exit. Rows F and G are on your right. Rows A to E are on your left.

This is your view from the other corner of the theatre, you can see the door to the Front of House area and the door to the bar.

To access the toilets, you will go down 4 steps to get to stage level. You then cross the stage to go backstage which is where the toilets are located. The toilets are closed during the performance.

Here is your view as you go backstage, you enter a corridor with three doors for the toilets.

There are ladies and gents toilets plus an all-gender bathroom.

This is your view as you exit the theatre, you can reach street level and exit the building by going up the stairs on your left.

If you need to leave during the performance, this is where you can come to and a staff member can offer you help.

Food

Jermyn Street Theatre has a no food policy. However, for relaxed performances, you are welcome to bring a snack into the theatre if you need to. We do not sell any food or snacks.

Ear defenders

We recommend you bring your own ear defenders to the theatre, but we do have some ear defenders at the theatre that you can borrow if you like. Just ask a staff member and they will help you.

Chillout space

If you need to leave the theatre during a relaxed performance, a theatre staff member will offer you help. You can sit in our foyer area if you would like to chill out for a while during the performance.

Watching the show

It is okay to feel happy or sad during the performance. You might smile or laugh at some moments. You might frown or cry at other moments. Other people might too depending on how they feel. This is okay.
